Decision of Independent Election Commission

Decision No:	1393-27
Subject:	100% audit of the votes in all polling stations of presidential run-off election
Responsible Authority:	Independent Election Commission Secretariat
Date and Location of Meeting:	July 14, 2014, IEC HQ
Present Members:	Dr. Ahmad Yousuf Nuristani, Mr. Abdul Rahman Hotaki, Ms. Gulalay Asakzai, Mr. Sareer Ahmad Barmak, Prof. Mohammad Hussain Gurziwani, Mr. Muhammad Aziz Bakhtiari, Jurist Sulaiman Hamid, Ms. Laila Ahrari, and Ms. Sharifa Zarmati Wardak

Under Article 13 of the Structural Law of the IEC and IECC and the provisions of Articles 58, 59 of the Election Law and the agreed technical framework between both candidates of the run-off election and the United Nations, the Independent Election Commission decided as follows:

For transparency of the election process and acceptance of run-off election results by both candidates, according to the agreement made between the two candidates, the United Nations, and under Mr. John Kerry's mediation, 100% of the votes in all polling stations must be audited in a manner that suggested by the United Nations in consultation with both candidates, and with the presence of candidates' agents, national and international observers and international advisors in Kabul. Based on audit results, the final electoral results must be announced.
